

Work-Based Learning Program

FIRE-RESCUE-EMS CADET

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATIONS

- Firefighter I
- Engine Company Fireground Operations
- Emergency Medical Technician
- Rescue Technician
- Hazardous Materials Operations

BENEFITS

- Advanced Training at no Cost
- A Professional Career with Opportunities
- Certified EMT & Firefighter
- Approved College Credits
- State Income Tax Incentives

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- Career Firefighter
- EMS Supervisor
- Fire Investigator
- Emergency Medical Technician
- Industrial Safety Officer
- Paramedic
- Fire Protection Engineer
- Flight Paramedic
- Forest Fire Inspector
- Phlebotomist
- Hazardous Materials Specialist
- Emergency Room Technician
- Career Fire Chief
- Emergency Services Dispatcher
- Emergency Management Specialist
- Fire Prevention Specialist
- Fire Prevention/Code Inspector
- Public Safety Officer
- Fire Marshal
- Fire Suppression Instructor
- EMS Instructor

4 SIMPLE STEPS

1. Register in the Work-Based Learning Program
2. Meet the physical requirements of a Firefighter & Emergency Medical Technician
3. Become a member of a volunteer fire company
4. Take the "World of Work" class in your senior year

Need more information about the program? Call 410-638-3955, ext. 102

Name: _____ Date: _____

Address: _____ E-mail: _____

Program: Fire/Rescue & EMT-B Track

Contact Numbers: (Home) _____ (Work) _____ (Cell) _____

School: _____ Grade: _____ Guidance Counselor: _____

Are you a member of a Harford County Volunteer Fire Company? Y N If yes, company: _____

Mail to: Donna Geisel, c/o Abingdon Fire Company, 3306 Abingdon Road, Abingdon, MD 21009